

Amtrak station officially opened

Eric Crump/H-F Chronicle
